Capital Credit Union Announces Bismarck-Mandan Market President Brad Shetler

BISMARCK, ND – Capital Credit Union today welcomed back Brad Shetler as Bismarck-Mandan market president. Shetler has nearly 13 years of professional experience in the financial services industry.

As market president, Shetler will lead Capital Credit Union’s Bismarck-area business lenders, with a focus on growing the credit union’s business services.

“We are thrilled to welcome Brad back to our team,” says Capital Credit Union CEO Vance Reinbold. “He is well-respected, knows our market and has a very strong background in financial services. As market president, Brad will be an integral part of helping our credit union’s business services grow.”

“I am excited to be back at the credit union, serving our commercial members,” says Shetler. “I’m also glad to be working alongside the talented business team here once again.”

Shetler rejoins the Capital Credit Union team after six months at First Western Bank & Trust. Prior to that, he worked at Capital Credit Union for 12 years; starting as a teller and working as a financial services representative, branch manager, credit analyst, business services officer and, finally, business services vice president.

Shetler earned a bachelor’s degree in business administration from University of Mary. He lives in Bismarck with his wife, Nicci, and son, Bryson.
