Capital Credit Union Announces New Business Services Officer Josh Hahn

BISMARCK, ND – Capital Credit Union today announced the hiring of Josh Hahn as business services officer at their Fargo Branch. Hahn has more than 12 years of professional experience in the financial services industry.

As business services officer, Hahn will focus on lending and delivery of multiple business products with an emphasis on building new business relationships.

“As we continue to grow in the Fargo market, we are excited to welcome Josh to the Capital Credit Union team,” says president/CEO Vance Reinbold. “He will be an essential part of helping our credit union expand in the Fargo area.”

Hahn joins the Capital Credit Union team from Starion Bank, where he had been mortgage banking officer since 2018. During his tenure at Starion, Hahn also served as retail branch manager for five years and personal banker for two. He is a volunteer for Junior Achievement of Fargo-Moorhead and United Way of Cass-Clay and is a member of the FMWF Chamber Young Professionals Network.

Hahn earned bachelor’s degrees in business management and economics/finance from Concordia College in Moorhead, MN. He lives in Fargo with his fiancé Megan.

ABOUT CAPITAL CREDIT UNION

Capital Credit Union, originally chartered in North Dakota in 1936, is a not-for-profit financial cooperative owned by each of its more than 30,000 members and overseen by a member-elected board of directors. Capital Credit Union returns profits to each member through fewer and lower fees, lower loan interest rates and higher savings interest rates. Savings, checking, loan, credit/debit card, and many other financial services and education are offered by Capital Credit Union to member individuals, businesses and other organizations located within a 75-mile radius of Bismarck, Hazen or Fargo, or a 50-mile radius of Beulah or New Salem.
