Capital Credit Union Announces New Mortgage Loan Officer Doug Lee

BISMARCK, ND – Capital Credit Union today announced the hiring of Doug Lee as mortgage loan officer/business development specialist at their Fargo Branch. Lee has more than 15 years of professional experience in the financial services industry.

As mortgage loan officer/business development specialist, Lee will guide members through each step of the home-buying process, develop and maintain relationships with local real estate experts and lead outside sales activities with realtors, builders, vendors and referral partners in the Fargo area.

“As we continue to grow our team in the Fargo market, we are excited to welcome Doug to Capital Credit Union,” says president/CEO Vance Reinbold. “He knows the market well and is well-respected in the industry. Doug will be an essential part of helping our credit union expand in the Fargo area.”

Lee joins the Capital Credit Union team from Starion Bank, where he had been mortgage banking supervisor since 2012. Prior to Starion Bank, Lee worked at U.S. Bank for nine years as a mortgage underwriter. He serves on the board of directors for Haley’s Hope Dyslexia Learning Center and is active in Hope Lutheran Church.

Lee earned a bachelor’s degree in finance from Mayville State University. He lives in Fargo with his wife Tonya and two children.

ABOUT CAPITAL CREDIT UNION

Capital Credit Union, originally chartered in North Dakota in 1936, is a not-for-profit financial cooperative owned by each of its more than 30,000 members and overseen by a member-elected board of directors. Capital Credit Union returns profits to each member through fewer and lower fees, lower loan interest rates and higher savings interest rates. Savings, checking, loan, credit/debit card, and many other financial services and education are offered by Capital Credit Union to member individuals, businesses and other organizations located within a 75-mile radius of Bismarck, Hazen or Fargo, or a 50-mile radius of Beulah or New Salem.
