Capital Credit Union Announces New Universal Services Representative

BISMARCK, ND – Capital Credit Union today announced the hiring of Trista Guttormson as universal services representative at their Hazen Branch.

As universal services representative, Guttormson will be responsible for consumer lending including auto, recreational vehicle and home equity loans, delivery of deposit products such as money market accounts and certificates of deposit, and actively soliciting, promoting, and servicing credit union products and services.

Guttormson joins the Capital Credit Union team from Brace Integrated Services, where she was an office administrator. She lives in Hazen with her husband, Chad, and son, Lincoln.

ABOUT CAPITAL CREDIT UNION

Capital Credit Union, originally chartered in North Dakota in 1936, is a not-for-profit financial cooperative owned by each of its more than 30,000 members and overseen by a member-elected board of directors. They offer personal and business banking solutions including auto loans, home equity loans, mortgage loans, checking accounts, savings accounts, business loans and more to member individuals, businesses and other organizations located within a 75-mile radius of Bismarck, Hazen or Fargo, or a 50-mile radius of Beulah or New Salem.
