Capital Credit Union Announces Vice President of Human Resources Patty Olson

BISMARCK, ND – Capital Credit Union today announced the hiring of Patty Olson as vice president of human resources. Olson has 20 years of professional experience in human resources combined with 16 years of executive-level experience in multi-location and multi-state organizations.

As vice president of human resources and a member of the credit union’s senior management team, Olson will be responsible for all aspects of the human resources functions including management and oversight of the compensation and benefits programs; workforce planning and talent management; policy development; employee relations; planning and implementation of departmental and strategic goals; and overall strategic leadership for the human resources function while overseeing department staff and responsibilities.

“We are thrilled Patty has joined our team,” says Capital Credit Union CEO Vance Reinbold. “She has a very strong human resources background and will be an integral part of our senior management team.”

“I am excited to bring my experience and strengths to Capital Credit Union to help support the growth of the organization,” says Olson.

Olson earned a Master of Business Administration with a Human Resource Management specialization from the University of Mary in 2013. She is an active member of Fargo Moorhead Human Resource Association (FMHRA) and Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM). Olson holds an SHRM-SCP certification and is a volunteer guest speaker for various human resources college associations.
