Capital Credit Union Promotes Froelich

BISMARCK, ND – Jessika Froelich was recently promoted to universal services representative at Capital Credit Union’s Hazen and Beulah branches.

In this role, Froelich will be responsible for consumer lending including auto, recreational vehicle and home equity loans, delivery of deposit products such as money market accounts and certificates of deposit, and actively soliciting, promoting, and servicing credit union products and services.

Froelich earned an associate degree in avionics from Community College of the Air Force in Montgomery, Alabama, and an associate degree in Korean language from Defense Language Institute Foreign Language Center at the Presidio of Monterey in Monterey, California. She has been with Capital Credit Union since March 2022, most recently as a member services associate at the Hazen and Beulah branches. Froelich and her husband, Mike, live in Hazen.

ABOUT CAPITAL CREDIT UNION

Capital Credit Union, originally chartered in North Dakota in 1936, is a not-for-profit financial cooperative owned by each of its more than 30,000 members and overseen by a member-elected board of directors. They offer personal and business banking solutions including auto loans, home equity loans, mortgage loans, checking accounts, savings accounts, business loans and more to member individuals, businesses and other organizations located within a 75-mile radius of Bismarck, Hazen or Fargo, or a 50-mile radius of Beulah or New Salem.
