

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
JANUARY 5, 2021

Capital Credit Union Promotes Griffin

BISMARCK, ND – Jon Griffin was recently promoted to chief lending officer at Capital Credit Union’s Main Office.

In this role, he will oversee Capital Credit Union’s lending culture, credit quality and portfolio management, as well as new business development and ongoing relationship management for the Business Services Department. In addition, he will oversee the Legal & Risk Management Department.

“Jon has the highest integrity with our members and employees and is committed to doing what is best for our membership every day,” says Capital Credit Union CEO Vance Reinbold. “He continually seeks ways to make processes efficient for both staff and members, which improves the overall experience. In this new role, he will continue to be an integral part of helping our members grow and thrive.”

Griffin graduated from the University of North Dakota in 2005 with bachelor’s degrees in accounting and finance. He also earned a Master of Business Administration from the University of Mary in 2015. He has been with Capital Credit Union since Jan. 2011, most recently as chief operations and risk officer at the Main Office.

ABOUT CAPITAL CREDIT UNION

Capital Credit Union, originally chartered in North Dakota in 1936, is a not-for-profit financial cooperative owned by each of its more than 30,000 members and overseen by a member-elected board of directors. They offer personal and business banking solutions including auto loans, home equity loans, mortgage loans, checking accounts, savings accounts, business loans and more to member individuals, businesses and other organizations located within a 75-mile radius of Bismarck, Hazen or Fargo, or a 50-mile radius of Beulah or New Salem.

CONTACT INFORMATION

Jillian Lagasse, Vice President of Marketing
jillian.lagasse@capcu.org
701.355.7706