Capital Credit Union Promotes Monson

BISMARCK, ND – Ryan Monson was recently promoted to chief financial officer at Capital Credit Union. In this position and as a member of the credit union's executive team, Monson will manage all aspects of Capital Credit Union's accounting department including asset liability management, budgeting, cost accounting, forecasting and investment portfolio management. In addition, he will oversee the credit union's human resources department.

"Since joining Capital Credit Union, Ryan has established himself as an integral part of our senior management team," says Capital Credit Union CEO Vance Reinbold. "His financial expertise, along with his excellent management and analytical skills, will be vital to his role as CFO. I look forward to the credit union's continued growth under his leadership."

Monson graduated from the University of North Dakota in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in accounting and is a certified public accountant. He has been with Capital Credit Union since August 2021, most recently as vice president of accounting. Monson and his wife, Angie, live in Bismarck with their sons, Bennett and Cooper.
