Capital Credit Union Promotes Nelson

BISMARCK, ND – Andrew Nelson was recently promoted to assistant branch manager at Capital Credit Union’s South Branch in Bismarck.

In this role, he will be responsible for overall branch operations as well as consumer lending including auto, recreational vehicle and home equity loans, delivery of deposit products such as money market accounts and certificates of deposit, and actively soliciting, promoting, and servicing credit union products and services.

Nelson majored in business administration at Bismarck State College. He has been with Capital Credit Union since 2020, most recently as a financial services representative at the South Branch in Bismarck.

ABOUT CAPITAL CREDIT UNION

Capital Credit Union, originally chartered in North Dakota in 1936, is a not-for-profit financial cooperative owned by each of its more than 30,000 members and overseen by a member-elected board of directors. They offer financial products and services including checking and savings accounts, credit cards, auto and recreational vehicle loans, home equity loans, mortgage loans, business loans, and more to member individuals, businesses and other organizations located within a 75-mile radius of Bismarck, Hazen or Fargo, or a 50-mile radius of Beulah or New Salem.
