Capital Credit Union Promotes Zeeb

BISMARCK, ND – Kayla Zeeb was recently promoted to financial services representative at Capital Credit Union’s North Branch.

In this role, she will be responsible for consumer lending including auto, RV and home equity loans, delivery of deposit products such as money market accounts and certificates of deposit, and actively soliciting, promoting, and servicing credit union products and services.

Zeeb earned an associate degree from Bismarck State College in 2018. She is currently attending Valley City State University and will graduate in December 2020 with a bachelor’s degree in communication. Zeeb has been with Capital Credit Union since October 2018, most recently as a contact center representative.

About Capital Credit Union

Capital Credit Union, originally chartered in North Dakota in 1936, is a not-for-profit financial cooperative owned by each of its more than 30,000 members and overseen by a member-elected board of directors. Capital Credit Union returns profits to each member through fewer and lower fees, lower loan interest rates and higher savings interest rates. Savings, checking, loan, credit/debit card, and many other financial services and education are offered by Capital Credit Union to member individuals, businesses and other organizations located within a 75-mile radius of Bismarck, Hazen or Fargo, or a 50-mile radius of Beulah or New Salem.
