Capital Credit Union Announces Director of Enterprise Risk Management Dave Hatton

FARGO, ND – Capital Credit Union today announced the hiring of Dave Hatton as director of enterprise risk management. Hatton has 20 years of professional experience in the financial services industry.

As director of enterprise risk management, Hatton will be responsible for the development, administration, and continuous improvement of Capital Credit Union's Enterprise Risk Management Program, including enterprise risk assessment, risk monitoring and reporting, policy governance, security oversight, business continuity planning, vendor risk management, fidelity bond and insurance administration, and loss prevention activities. He will serve as a strategic resource to management in identifying, evaluating, mitigating, and monitoring risks that could affect Capital Credit Union's operations, financial condition, reputation, or strategic objectives.

"I enjoy the strong team-focused culture of Capital Credit Union and look forward to the opportunities the credit union offers to become more involved in community events and contribute to initiatives that make a meaningful impact," said Hatton.

Hatton joins the Capital Credit Union team from the North Dakota Department of Financial Institutions where he worked as a credit union examiner since 2015. Originally from Hallock, Minnesota, he earned a bachelor's degree in accounting from Minnesota State University Moorhead in 2005. Hatton and his wife, Greta, live in West Fargo with their two daughters.

ABOUT CAPITAL CREDIT UNION
