FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JULY 6, 2026

Capital Credit Union Promotes Bruhn

FARGO, ND – Anthony Bruhn was recently promoted to agriculture manager vice president at Capital Credit Union.

As agriculture manager vice president, Bruhn will oversee the credit union’s agriculture loan and deposit portfolios and collaborate with loan officers across all regions to deliver business products and services to existing and prospective members. In addition, he will oversee all agriculture services staff.

“Anthony understands the unique challenges and opportunities within the ag industry and local business community,” says Chief Lending Officer Brad Shetler. “His strong leadership and deep industry expertise makes him a valuable resource for both our lending team and our members.”

Bruhn has 15 years of experience in the financial services industry and has been with Capital Credit Union since 2025, most recently serving a business services vice president. Originally from Detroit Lakes, Minnesota, he earned a Bachelor of Science degree from North Dakota State University in 2011. Bruhn is the founder and currently serves as president of Oakes' Hole-In-One Foundation and is a member of the Oakes Lions Club. He and his wife, Kalli, live in Oakes with their four children.
