Capital Credit Union Promotes Roller

BISMARCK, ND – Tara Roller was recently promoted to business services representative at Capital Credit Union’s Main Office in Bismarck. In this role, she will be responsible for delivering business products and services to existing and prospective credit union members. She will also look for opportunities to provide additional products and services to business members.

“I enjoy working with our business members to help them meet their financial needs,” says Roller. “I am passionate about what I do and strive to make it as easy as possible for our members to reach their goals.”

Roller graduated from North Dakota State University in Fargo, ND, with a bachelor’s degree in business with an emphasis in finance. She has been with Capital Credit Union since 2020, most recently as a business services associate.

Roller and her husband, Nathan, live in Bismarck and share four children.

ABOUT CAPITAL CREDIT UNION

Capital Credit Union, originally chartered in ND in 1936, is a not-for-profit financial cooperative owned by each of its more than 30,000 members and overseen by a member-elected board of directors. They offer personal and business financial solutions including auto, home equity and mortgage loans, checking and savings accounts, business loans and more to individuals and businesses located within a 75-mile radius of Bismarck, Hazen or Fargo, or a 50-mile radius of Beulah or New Salem.
