

WHO WE ARE

We hope you'll enjoy our simplified yet quirky approach to defining Capital Credit Union's culture. We think this book captures our story perfectly; who we are and why we love working here.

We deliver "WOW" service

We communicate
openly and honestly

We have passion for what we do

We celebrate our successes

We are honest
and trustworthy

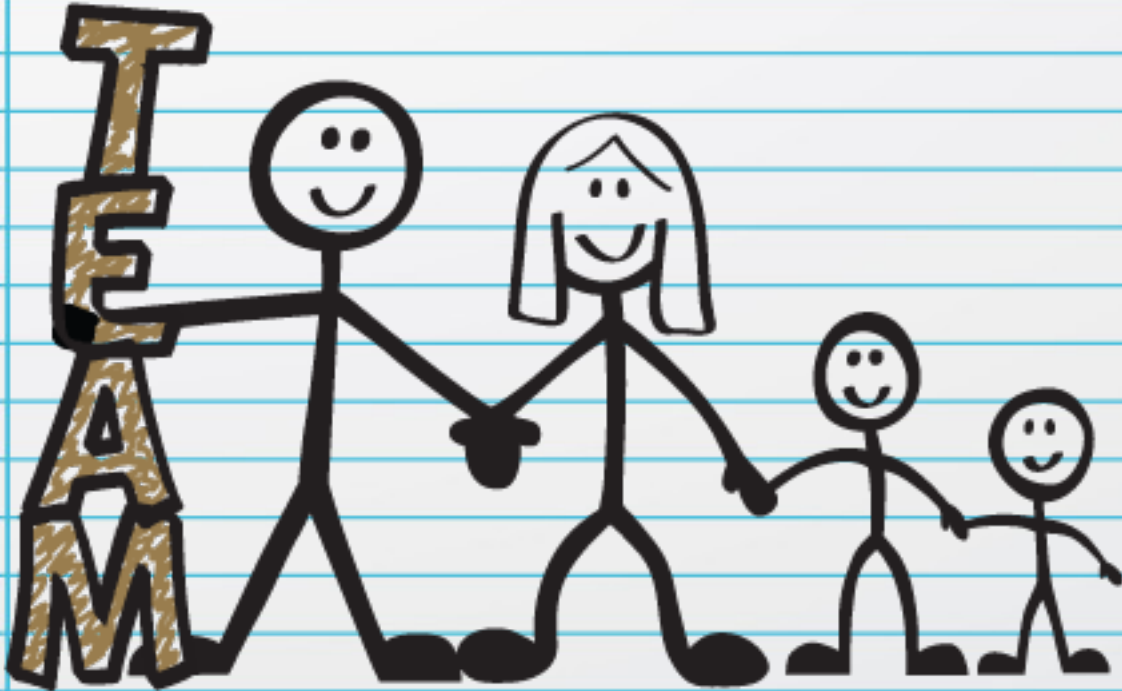

We have fun

We are good stewards of the members' money

We have a positive team
and family spirit

We are professionals

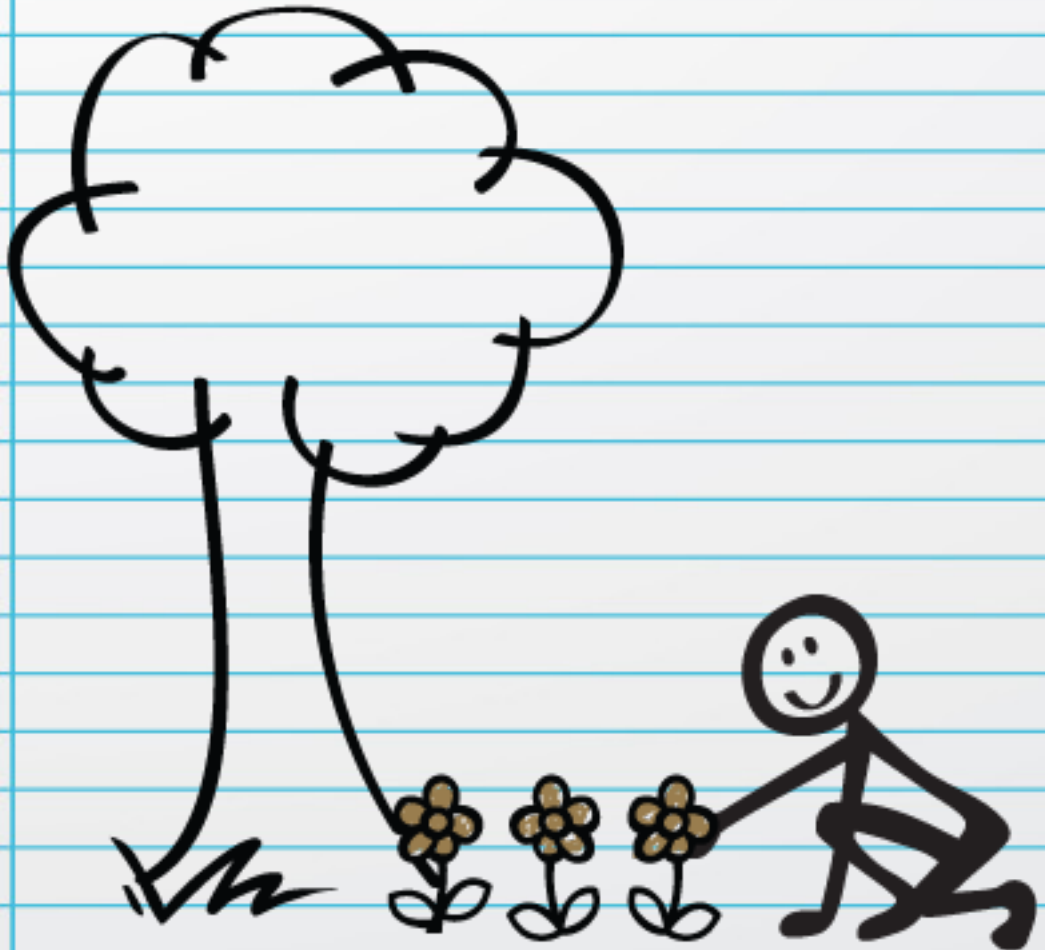

We are leaders:
innovative and progressive

We suggest product and service options that are in the members' best interest

We support our communities

There are opportunities for development and learning

We believe that offering financial education is important and understand that being financially responsible begins with us

We are encouraged to be creative and to think outside the box

We strive for success

We are friendly,
caring and warm

We take pride in ourselves and in our work

PRIDE

Our Board of Directors is the voice of our membership

We are a credit union

NOT a bank
